

A photograph of a residential street lined with large, mature trees. The street is paved and has a white dashed line down the center. On the left side, several cars are parked along the curb, including a silver convertible in the foreground. On the right side, a white van is parked. In the background, brick houses with white window frames are visible. A person is standing on the left sidewalk near the silver car. The scene is bright and sunny, with dappled light from the trees on the road.

House Names in the Mill Hill Park Area

Heathfield Road

Springfield Lodge

One of the old field names was Spring Field.

2 & 4 Heathfield Road are being redeveloped as flats (2019).

2 Heathfield Rd
London W3 8EL

Thornsett House

This was the home of George Crapper, plumber, eldest brother of the better-known Thomas Crapper, plumber to royalty, improver of sanitary systems and pioneer of bathroom showrooms - commemorated by a blue plaque on his house in Thornsett Road in Anerley. Thornsett a place in Yorkshire - Crapper family all born in Yorkshire so probably had some family meaning.

4 Heathfield Rd
London W3 8EL

Unknown

...

...

6 to 20 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EL

Normandale

Normandale is a valley in Yorkshire.

22 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EL

Unknown

A Scottish barrister and author, David Graham, lived here for some years in the 1890s. He had quite a number of books published, mostly verse dramas about characters from Scottish history.

24 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EL

Glaisdale

Glaisdale is a beauty spot in the
Esk Valley in North Yorkshire

34 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EL

Glen-Etive

Glen-Etive is a beauty spot in the Highlands of Scotland.

36 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EL

Unknown

Like some other houses in Heathfield Road all these were built well after numbers introduced.

38 to 48 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EL

Rosecroft

There are various places with this name - also a general 'evocative' name suggesting roses and rural scene (croft a rustic dwelling).

50 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EL

Briardene

Also an evocative name - 'dene' a deep valley. Numerous Briardenes, notably near Windermere in the Lake District, also near Truro in Cornwall.

52 Heathfield Rd
London W3 8EL

Unknown

54 & 56 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EL

Linden Villa [58]

Linden another name for lime tree. Originally built as the park-keeper's house.

Stanley Villa [60]

Could be a reference to the famous Stanley who found Dr Livingstone in Africa in 1871? [this house later The Dell?].

This pair, now 58 and 60 Heathfield Road were built long before the surrounding houses and were considered part of Avenue Crescent for a time.

58 & 60 Heathfield Rd
London W3 8EL

Unknown

Built in 20th century. No indication these had names; but some Heathfield Road house names which have yet to be pinpointed and may be in this section of the road are Brockhurst, Elstree, Kenmore and Desford - places in Hampshire, Hertfordshire, Scotland and Leicestershire respectively. Somewhere in Heathfield Road there was also a pair of semi-detached houses called Brookwood and Elmhurst.

23 to 29 Heathfield
Rd London W3 8EL

Unknown

31 and 33 Heathfield Rd
London W3 8EL

Unknown

Like some other houses in Heathfield Road all these were built well after numbers introduced.

5 to 21 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EH

Gorphwysfa Warlow

Destroyed by direct hit by a bomb on night of 28 Oct. 1940. The name is Welsh for 'Warlow's resting-place'.

Elizabeth Warlow, President in 1904 of Acton Esperanto Group designed the house herself and was resident from about 1880 until her death in 1920.

Flats called James Welch Court are there now.

1 Heathfield Rd London W3 8EN

